

Reading Comprehension

Baking Cookies

Jill enjoys baking and has been baking a lot more since she has been off school. Jill is going to bake chocolate chip cookies. She gathers all the ingredients she needs to make the cookies. She has the sugar, butter, eggs and flour. Oh no! Jill has forgot something. Jill has forgotten to buy chocolate chips! Jill decides to make plain cookies instead. Her family enjoyed tasting Jill's baking.

1. Why has Jill been baking a lot more than usual?
2. What is Jill going to bake?
3. What has Jill forgotten to buy?
4. What does Jill have to make instead?

5. Have you been baking while we have been staying indoors? Draw your favourite thing to bake or eat!