EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Each event offered more than just financial support—it strengthened our school community and provided opportunities for families to engage with the school in meaningful ways.

- Bake Off & Cheese and Wine Night: These social events encouraged parent participation and fostered connections among families.

- Christmas Cards, Gifts & Tea Towels: Showcased pupil creativity and provided families with memorable keepsakes.

- Christmas Market & Ceilidh: Delivered festive fun and strong attendance, with excellent support from volunteers.

- Summer Fair: Engaged pupils and families in a day of activity, even the rain didn't dampen spirits.

-- Football Fundraiser & Paddington Fundraiser: Show the creativity of our community and offered variety.

- Matched Funding & Easyfundraising: Demonstrated the value of employer and digital support in boosting our efforts.

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION

We extend our sincere thanks to all volunteers who contributed their time and energy. Whether baking, decorating, running stalls, selling raffle tickets, or helping with setup and cleanup, your efforts are the foundation of our success. Roseburn PTA continues to thrive because of your commitment.

LOOKING AHEAD – 2025–2026

Planning is already underway for the new academic year. Confirmed and proposed events include:

- Cheese and Wine Night
- Halloween Parties (volunteers needed)
- Ceilidh
- Summer Fair

A team is already planning the cheese and wine night, We are actively seeking volunteers for the Halloween events. If you are interested in helping create a fun and safe experience for our pupils, please get in touch.

CLOSING REMARKS

The PTA remains committed to supporting the school and enhancing the educational experience of all pupils. We look forward to another year of collaboration, creativity and community spirit.
