

Literacy

Our writing focus for the beginning of term will be poetry followed by imaginative writing, linked to our WW2 topic.

We will also continue to focus on:

Handwriting: We are using cursive formation. Each week we will focus on different joins, as outlined in weekly overview.

Grammar: main & dependent clauses, commas used in clauses, apostrophes in contractions and possession, semi-colons and colons used to separate phrases in a sentence, punctuating direct speech, use of hyphen and dashes in punctuation.

Spelling: We continue to use spelling shed to learn spelling rules and sounds. We are also focusing on tricky words that we often spell incorrectly or don't know the meaning of. Spelling words will go home on a Tuesday, these will consist of a range of words from spelling shed and words your child may often misspell or not understand.

Reading: We will be reading the books, 'Hitler's Canary' and 'Letters from the lighthouse' to link with our WW2 topic.
